Detailed description of goods and/or services

Zawadi is a manufacturer and wholesaler of African décor, art, gifts and jewellery.

Delivery policy

Subject to availability and receipt of payment, requests will be processed within 2 days and dispatch confirmed by way of a waybill/tracking number emailed to the client. Goods will be dispatched via courier service. Upon arrival of the order in the recipient's country, the courier company will make contact with the recipient to notify them of arrival of their order in their country, and to inform them of any VAT/sales tax, duties and disbursement fees payable. The recipient then has 7 days to make payment and email proof of payment, otherwise the order may become subject to storage charges, which will be for the recipient's account. Should the recipient be unable or unwilling to make payment to the courier, then the parcel will be returned to Zawadi, and the recipient forfeits their right to a refund. We are unable to give advice on any international duties or taxes. Prices shown do not include any local duties or taxes. Zawadi is not liable for these costs that may be charged by local customs and duties offices in your country, nor any disbursement fees that may be charged by the courier delivering your order. We are unable to deliver to PO Boxes.

Return and Refunds policy

The provision of goods by Zawadi is subject to availability.

We endeavour to have all displayed items in stock at all times, however due to circumstances beyond our control, there may be a delay in updating the stock levels on our website. Should an item you have ordered not be in stock, you will be contacted by our online team. Items which are not in stock may soon become available, however if you do not wish to wait, we will offer you your choice of another product or a full refund.

In the unlikely event of any damaged or incorrect items received by our customers, once verified, we will replace any such items providing:

- We are notified in writing within 48 hours of receipt of goods.
- The goods are still in their original packaging.
- The goods are immediately made available for our sales agent or nominated courier to collect.

Zawadi will then replace the item free of charge, providing stock is available, or if not, then pass a credit or refund. Postage or courier costs will be covered by Zawadi. Cancellation of orders by the client will attract a 10% administration fee. Any goods returned damaged will be charged for in full.
